

Copy protection should not be enforced over the airwaves or else our freedom as consumers will be vastly inhibited, we wont be able to tape shows for later review, and you will have alot of very unhappy people on you're hands. The speed with which this copyright mayhem is proliferating scares me, soon we will not be able to do anything convenient!